

report on community development outreach program

Date 12 December 2024

Venue: Govt Primary School Haripur Manali

As part of the community development outreach program initiated by the directorate of higher education a team comprising professor Krishna Sharma and professor Priyanka Thakur conducted a visit to government Primary School Haripur Manali on dated 12th December 2024. The program aimed to foster collaboration provide guidance and contribute to holistic development of the school community.

1 . Session conducted counselling and guidance for students

The team provided one on one and group counselling session to the students addressing their academic personal and social challenges. The sessions emphasized the importance of setting goals, maintaining discipline and posting a positive mindset to achieve academic excellence and personal growth.

2 discussion on school development plan

Professor Krishna and professor Priyanka engaged in detail discussion with the faculty on creating and implementing a sustainable development .The focus was on improving infrastructure and teaching methods .

3 knowledge sharing

The team emphasized the value of knowledge sharing as a tool for academic and personal development.

4 Importance of discipline

A special session was held to understand the importance of discipline as a cornerstone of success.

The visit to Govt.primary school Haripur Manali was a significant step bridging the gap between higher education and primary education. The directorate of higher education initiative has proven to an effective platform for fostering community development.