7	Brief Report	Mr. Harish Kumar, an alumnus of JLNGC Haripur and a theatre veteran with twelve years of experience (associated with Rangapriya Theatre Society, Culture Warrior Productions, etc., and having appeared in over seventy films and web-series) was invited as a resource person to conduct a ten-day dramatics workshop in the college. The student members of Abhivyakti – the newly formed Dramatics Society – were thus introduced to the basics of theatre and stage-craft. The ten-day workshop began with the emphasis on respecting the stage, for instance, by taking off one's footwear before stepping on to it. This was followed by games and theatrical activities related to occupying space on the stage, switching between a variety of emotions, dramatic reading, teamwork, script-writing and building props. Auditions were also held to finalize members of the dramatic society as well as to form teams for the Group IV competitions of the HPU Youth Festival (held in Atal Sadan, Kullu from 20/11/2024 to 22/11/2024). Thereafter, scripts were finalized for the competitions and rehearsals began in earnest from morning to evening. The students were also engaged to make elaborate props for the same. Through all these activities, the students claim to have gained much in terms of confidence and discipline apart from the dramatic and artistic skills they imbibed from Mr. Harish. A contingent of 15 students (including actors, musicians, production team, etc.) participated in the categories of one-act play, skit and mime in the Group IV competitions. The one-act play was based on SR Harnot's story Keelein, and JLNGC Haripur stood first in the category.
